

Royal Society of New South Wales

Christmas Party 2009

Join us for our end of year celebration on Wednesday 2nd December, in the Cloisters of the historic and delightful St Paul's College at Sydney University (built by Blakett in 1856).
TIME: 8pm (following our Studentship Awards at 6.30 in the Rodgers Room upstairs at St Paul's)
The cost of $25 includes food and drinks.

(Book with payment by Wednesday 25 November)

St Paul's College: take the City Road entrance directly opposite the Darlington Centre. Go through the entrance flanked by two sandstone pillars and proceed north-west along the driveway for 200 metres (keeping the oval on your right) until you come to a 4 m high archway. Park beside the oval and walk through the arch and across the quad to the Cloisters. Parking is free.
